

Welcome to the first edition of GCW Capital Group's e-newsletter!

We've got a new name and look, and we're excited to share it with you.

We're proud to introduce GCW Capital Group as the parent group of GCW Capital, LLC, and GCW Risk & Benefit Solutions – formerly Waring Financial Group. Find out more about why we've made these exciting changes.

Our new e-newsletter is a tool for our clients and partners—a place where we can share news, information and expertise about the financial services we're so proud to offer. We hope you enjoy it and find it useful.

Feel free to forward to a friend or business partner, and if you have content ideas you'd like to see us cover, email us at info@gcwcapital.com

Life Insurance: Is it Time for a Policy Review?

Over the years, family needs change. Do you have the proper life insurance policy in place? Watch a quick video to learn more.

DOL Fiduciary Standard Ruling – Our Thoughts

It has now been several months since the U.S. Department of Labor set a new fiduciary standard for financial advisers. Read our thoughts on the ruling.

Sled Hockey Foundation: Changing Lives

At GCW Capital Group, we are honored to support the Sled Hockey Foundation, a group that advocates on behalf of disabled athletes who want to take part in this great sport. See photos from a recent event for the foundation on our Facebook page.

